IMPORTANT NOTES

WEATHER

Please note that at times the weather is unpredictable. All precautions are taken in extreme weather events.

Please bring wet weather gear in the event of wet weather. Please raise any concerns by calling or emailing.

Circumstances may arise that require changes to be made to our program on the actual day. We will notify families via email of any changes.

BUSES & FERRIES

Children will be travelling via chartered bus and Sydney Ferries for our excursions. Please ensure that you arrive no later than 9:00am on excursion days, so there are no chances of missing the bus.

All buses are equipped with seatbelts to ensure the safety of your children.

BE PREPARED

WHAT TO BRING

- Bring hats
- Bring your own morning tea and lunches (including a bottle of water), unless specified otherwise
- Wear comfortable and appropriate clothing
- Always wear enclosed footwear

WATER PLAY

In hot weather we encourage water play. Please provide a change of clothes or swimwear to ensure the comfort of the children.

WHAT NOT TO BRING

- Don't bring any valuables that staff cannot look after (such as money, toys, electronics etc.).
- Don't wear singlets, singlet dresses
- Don't wear thongs or sandals as some activities prohibit these types of footwear

CANCELLATION NOTICE

Please plan your chosen days carefully as Eaton Street Centre has a strict NO CANCELLATION POLICY.

If your child cannot attend on a day they have been booked, please notify us as soon as possible, FEES will still be applied for all absences.

Sick children are not permitted to attend the centre as they may spread infection to other children and staff. If you require a staff member to administer medication to your child, you must complete a Medication Authority Form(available on request).
